

Brunch & Brainstorm

BUILDING CAPACITY TO COMBAT LABOR TRAFFICKING

8.15.24 Takeaways

Framework's grantee-centered monthly office hours event, "Brunch and Brainstorm", aimed at increasing OVC grantee awareness of the new labor trafficking grant reporting expectations starting in 2023, was held on Thursday, August 15th.

Agency Spotlight

Thank you so much to Vanessa Velarde with Church World Services (CWS) NorCal for sharing a bit about the organization, the R.I.S.E. program, and what they are doing for labor trafficking survivors in their area.

OVC Expectation: Increasing Identification of Labor Trafficking Survivors

Here are some tools that you can use to increase identification via outreach

FRAMEWORK

Labor Trafficking
Outreach Fundamentals
Certification Course

This five-module, self-paced course provides practical knowledge, tools, and guided support to implement and/or enhance labor trafficking outreach strategies with the goal of increasing identification of labor trafficking survivors and their access to supportive services.

This panel discussion highlighting survivor perspectives

explores experiences and insights relevant to trauma-informed and effective labor trafficking outreach. Learn about tailoring content and responsible representation, assessing agency readiness, and considerations for partnering with survivors, among other topics. Viewers will gain practical tips to connect with people experiencing labor trafficking in their communities.

Survivor Perspectives:
Increasing Identification Through Labor
Trafficking Outreach

Friday, September 25, 2020

Featuring: Bella Hounakey, Buki Domingos, Evans Breus & Julissa Ponce

Enjoyed August's session? Or maybe you missed it? Sign up for September's Brunch & Brainstorm NOW! We will be discussing serving survivors of labor trafficking.

More Resources:

Outreach Planning Tool

Client Facing Resource For Children and Youth - Am I in a Dangerous Working Situation?